TO MAKE MUCH SILVER MONEY

Hill's Coinage Measure Brought to Attention of House.

TO KEEP METALS AT PARITY

subsidiary Silver Pieces to be Increased as Necessity Requires, Without Any Limit.

Washington, Jan. 9 .- The first financal measure of importance to be reported to the House is that agreed upon today by the committee on coinage, weights and measures, providing for the maintenance of the legal-tender silver dollar at a parity with gold, and for the increase of the subsidary silver colnage. The measure was introduced by Representative Hil, of Connecticut. it was considered last year in Congress and attracted widespread attenton among bankers and financial au-

Mr. Hill today urged immediate action, in order that the bill might be liought before the House at an early This was opposed by the Demoany. This was opposed by the Demo-ratic members, who were against the bill on its merits and protested against what they alleged to be undue haste. Mr. Shafroth, of Colorado, sought to have the vote deferred one week, in order that Alexander Delmar, writer on control subjects, much he heard conomic subjects, might be heard.
This was voted, as were all other motions to defer action, and the committec by a party vote ordered the bill re-

It authorizes the coinage of sub-sidary silver coin without regard to imit and as public necessity may re-quire. The most important feature of the bill, for the parity of gold and sil-ver dollars, is as follows:

The secretary of the treasury is hereby directed to maintain at all times at a arity with gold the legal-tender silver dollars remaining outstanding, and to that end he is hereby directed to ex-change gold for legal-tender silver dollars when presented to the treasury in the sum of $5 or any multiple thereof, and all provisions of law for the use or maintenance of the reserve fund in the treasury relating to United States notes, at the discretion of the secretary, re hereby made applicable to the ex-change of legal-tender silver dollars.

The Nation's Skeleton.

Washington, Jan. 9.-The Post tomorrow will say: The case of Rear-Admiral Schley is now being considered by the attorney-general for the purpose of discovering whether there was any illegality in connection with the court of inquiry. It is understood that at the recent conference between the President and Rear-Admiral Schley the latter pointed out some alleged violations of law in regard to the court, and these matters have been deemed worthy of

The attorney-general is not to pass upon the merits of the case, but deal solely with its legal phase. If he shall find that the court was properly constituted, that the precept was legally drawn, and that the rules of law ere followed as to the evidence, it will then be within the province of the President to consider the case upon its

If the attorney-general decides that there were irregularities, as claimed by Admiral Schiey, the verdict of the court would be vitiated. It is understood that Admiral Schley's future course concerning a formal appeal in writing to the President will depend largely upon the decision of the attor-

Burned by Acid.

Aurora, Ill., Jan. 9.—Charles Straussburger, No. 22 Newberry avenue, Chicago, a student for the priesthood, was the mistaken victim of an acid-thrower at the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy depot here last evening.

As Straussburger entered the door of the depot a man stepped in front of him and dashed a vial of acid in his face. The fluid missed his eyes, but the right cheek and side of his nose were badly burned. The thrower took a second look at his victim and cried out: "My God, I've got the wrong man," and fled. Straussburger was able to return to his home in Chicago. There is no clue to the identity of the thrower.

New York, Jan. 10,-Mrs. Charles R. Lamb of the Municipal Art society of New York, who has just returned from St. Louis, states that the scheme for a "model city" at the St. Louis exposition in 1903 has been accepted by the commissioners of the exposition.

Capt. Crossman Dead.

New York, Jan. 10.-Captain James A Crossman, who was in command of the Crossman, who was in command of the steamship Alliancia, when, on March 8, 1895, she was fired on by a Spanish cruiser off Cape May, is dead at his home in Jersey City. Three shots were fired at the ship by the cruiser, but Captain Crossman kept on and brought his ship to New York. The incident caused considerable excitement and diplomatic adjustment was required. During the civil war Crossman served as an ensign in the navy. He was born at Hudson, N. Y., 58 years ago.

Brooklyn to be Repaired.

New York, Jan. 10 .- It is announced at the Brooklyn navy yard that the ar-mored cruiser Brooklyn, at present the flagship on the Astatic station, will come to the local yard for extensive re-pairs, as soon as she is relieved at Manila by the Rainbow, now on her way there. The Brooklyn is to be overhauled at an expense of about $250,000.

East Wants Chinamen.

New York, Jan. 10.-Cotton goods manufacturers are concerned over the renewed agitation looking to the con-tinued exclusion of Chinese, notwith-standing that the treaty with China does not expire until 1904, says the Journal of Commerce. They regard such agitation as a direct menace to the otherwise favorable prospects for a large increase in our business with China and as being altogether ill-advised. Concerted effort is to be made to present to Washington in proper light the injustice of the present relitation and likewise the injustice contemplated in the proposed action of continued exclusion.

Prince Coming.

New York, Jan. 10 .- Prince Victor of Savoy leaves Rome, Itally, next week for a trip to the United States, according to a dispatch from Rome to the Journal and American. The prince is fourth in line of succession to the throne of Italy.

He is one of the most accomplished cavalry officers in the Italian army and will be remembered also as having wounded Prince Henri of Orleans in a duel in Paris, the duel being brought about through insults to Italian prisoners in Abyasinia in the columns of the Paris Figaro. Prince Victor visited the United States in 1897. It was rumored throughout Italy that he was sent to America to break off an unfortunate at-tachment. The uncle, King Humbert, however, is believed to have sent him to learn as much as he could of the institutions of America, especially the military establishments, as Prince Victor is destined for a military career.

It is generally believed in Rome, how-ever, that Prince Victor returns to carry word that the consent of his royal cousin, now king of Italy, has been given to a marriage with an American Reformer Huang Yu Wei Desires Chinese Institutions.

CARE FOR CELESTIAL CASH.

Vancouver, B. C., is to be the First City to Have a Chinese Banking House

New York, Jan. 10 .- Chinese merchants of this city are much interested in the news which comes from Vancouver, B. C., that Chinese reformers are about to establish banks in the Chinatown districts of several cities of the United States. Huang Yu Wel, the reformer, who visited the Pacific coast two years ago, is said to be in possession of considerable funds. He has also decided to gain some hold over the Chinese in America, many of whom lean toward the reform party, and it is said that a chain of banks will give him much influence. The headquarters of the banking system, according to the accounts which have reached this city will be at Hongkong. The first bank will be established at Vancouver, where there is a large Chinese population.

To be in Style.

New York, Jan. 10 .- Although prelates well acquainted with American institutions alv/ays have declared to be absurd, the idea of having an American representative at the vatican, as against the spirit of the American constitution, says the Rome correspondent of the Tribune, the party favorable to this project, headed by Cardinal Satolli, increases in numbers. It is now insisting that the vatican take advantage of the important Philippine ques-tion to have Washington send, anyway a confidential agent to treat with the vatican, which should give its pleage to maintain secrecy on occasions for avoiding acknowledging him officially as was done on former occasions for the defining of special questions; otherwise the agent would be repudiated at Washington.

Johannesburg Picking Up.

New York, Jan. 10.—Progress in Jo-hannesburg has been particularly rapid within the last two months, according ing to the London Times correspondent there. The article, reproduced in the New York Times, says:

Prospects for the future are even better. Communication with the coast is secured by the blockhouse system, and the agreement with the Portuguese appears to have cleared the obstacles to the resumption of industry. Thousands of refugees, says the correspondent, are still waiting to return. The community is naturally somewhat impoverished but every one is sanguine that, as regards Johnnesburg, the worst of the war is over.

Will Increase Taxes.

London, Jan. 10 .- The approach of the reassembling of parliament and the necessity of meeting a difficult financial situation is bringing out much discussion as to the means of recasting the system of taxation.

The Daily Telegraph, in its issue of today, suggests the possibility of a small tax on all imports.

The Times, commenting on letters contributed to its pages by the statistician, Sir Robert Giffen, who advocates the replacing of the heavy income tax by a system of increased indirect taxation and who estimates the coming deficit at £10,000,000, expresses approval of Sir Robert's ideas and thinks that increased taxes upon tea and sugar

Heart in Wrong Place.

Bloomington, Itls., Jan. 10 .- A man with his heart on the right side instead of the left has just been discovered by the pension board of this city. The man is Geo. W. Hurst of Lexington, a wateran of the civil war, who recently applied for a pension. In the course of the physical examination the physicans made the remarkable discovery that the applicant's heart was on the right side instead of the left. Hurst says that he never experienced any discomfort or inconvenience as a result of this unusual location of his heart. The pulsations are as even as those of an ordinary man of his age, and there appears to be nothing unusual about the heart except its location. It is normal in every other way. The physicians say that the case is extremely rare, and only a few are known to the medical

NOT CONNECTED.

Payne is Not Interested in Florence Mining Company.

Washington, Jan. 9.-The confirmation of Gov. Shaw to be secretary of the treasury was accomplished in the Senate without comment, but there was some controversy over the action of the committee on postoffices in re of the committee on postonices the reporting Mr. Payne's nomination to be postmaster-general without going through the formality of a meeting.

Senator Rawlins stated that he had desired to appear before the committee for the purpose of requesting that an inquiry be instituted into the charge that Mr. Payne had been interested in that Mr. Payne had been interested in the efforts to secure leases for the purpose of prospecting for minerals on the Indian reservations in Utah, l been president of the Florence Mining company. Mr. Rawlins yesterday were read. Senator Spooner, a representative of Mr. Payne's own state, replied to this statement by reading a letter addressed to himself by Mr. Payne and dated several weeks back, in which Mr. Payne said that his connection with the Florence company had terminated two years ago and that at present he had no interest, direct or indirect, im-mediate or remote, in that corporation.

Mr. Rawlins thereupon said that the investigation was satisfactory, and after some further criticism of the committee for the manner in which the report was made, namely, by an informal canvass, the nomination was unani-mously confirmed. Senator Mason de-fended the action of the committe as in harmony with numerous precedents, and also spoke eulogistically of Mr.
